

Complete Travel Agent Software Solutions Starting at $4,150.00

With the WeaponX Travel Agent Software Solution, you can combine a flexible content management system with online advertising and marketing tools.

- Your in-house specials database can display all of your flight, vacation package and cruise inventory. Various search features allow you to make more information available without having a cluttered, confusing web site.
- You can create your own destination categories, so your clients can search your site based on their area of interest, favorite locations, best prices, earliest departure, etc.
- Every page and destination can be sent to a friend via email or be sent to your agent as a request for more information. All requests can be assigned, tracked and followed up in the Email Request / Send to a Friend application.
- You will be able to market to your clients more easily with attractive HTML email newsletters targeted to your clients' interests. Users who subscribe are able to store their preferences on your site, making it easy for them to search for exactly what they want.
